NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION

The Corporation Counsel serves as the Chief Legal Officer for the Mayor, City and City Council. The office represent the Mayor, City and City Council in all actions, lawsuits, or proceedings brought against or on behalf of the City. The Law Department, with approximately 16 attorneys, provides legal counsel to the Mayor, City Council and all City Officers and Departments, as well as representing all City Agencies such as Civil Service Commission, Planning Board, Zoning Board of Appeals, Board of Contract and Supply; Charter Revision Committee and Ethics Board and the Board of Education in certain cases.

The Law Department handles all aspects of civil litigation, including personal injury, civil rights, employment related litigation, environmental matters and contract claims. The Department of Law also defends the City in all tax certiorari proceedings as well as defending the City or any City officer or employee acting in their official capacity.

The Law Department is increasingly involved in the enforcement of City Code Violations including enforcement of Building Codes, City Ordinances, Zoning Ordinances and all other laws affecting the use of land and condition of buildings in the City.

Additionally, the Law Department approves as to form and legality all contracts and agreements entered into by the City and approves all legal instruments in which the City has an interest. The Department also takes an active role in the City's Economic Development activities, Public Works projects and Real Estate transactions. Furthermore, the Law Department drafts and reviews ordinances, resolutions and legislation for action by the Administration and City Council.
